The 2008 MSATA Golf Outing will be held on Sunday, August 17, 2008. The play will be a four-person scramble, and is open to all conference attendees and their guests. The outing will be held at the University Ridge Golf Club in Madison, Wisconsin (about 10 miles south from the Concourse Hotel).

University Ridge sits upon a terminal moraine where the Wisconsin Glacier stopped, forming the backbone of the ridge that separates the land into rolling hills and valleys. It spreads across the beautiful rolling hills and bowls that accentuate the grass-covered, moonscape that typifies the moraine characteristics and then it gently flows into the dense forests of Wisconsin's Woodlands. This is a player-friendly course that was designed by Robert Trent Jones, Jr.

Golf registration fee is $70 per person. The registration fee includes: deluxe continental breakfast, green fees, golf cart, practice balls, yardage guides, personalized bag tag, Wisconsin tailgate cookout (lunch), and prizes. Rental clubs are available for an additional $35.

Complete the registration form below and submit it with your conference registration. Golf registration and payment may be submitted separately to: Sharon Sellner, MS 6-40, MSATA 2008, PO Box 8933, Madison, WI 53708-8933.

Golfers requiring transportation to the golf course will need to meet in the hotel lobby by 7:00 a.m. All golfers need to check in at the golf course at 7:30 a.m. for an 8:30 shotgun start.

Non-metal spikes are required. Collared shirts and proper golf attire must be worn at all times.

Visit the University Ridge website at www.universityridge.com for more course information, including a video tour of the course.
